

YORKSHIRE ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

TOWTON BATTLEFIELD WALK

Tuesday 12th September 2017

A three-hour circular walk taking in the ten information boards on the Battlefield Trail, which tell the full story in graphic detail of this 1461 Wars of the Roses encounter, “probably the largest and bloodiest battle ever fought on English soil”.

Meet at 12.00 noon for lunch at The Rockingham Arms, Towton, 2.5 miles south of Tadcaster on the A162 Tadcaster to Sherburn-in-Elmet road.

Full menu available, from Light Bites at £4.25. Cars may be left in the pub car park whilst we walk the trail following lunch.

Note that this walk is not accessible by public transport.

Wear suitable outdoor clothes and footwear for walking field paths, and bring a drink.

Please book your lunch by e-mailing Jane Ellis:

yas.excursion@gmail.com with your name, the number of participants and contact telephone number. Telephone Jane on 07787-311913 for details. The lunch options will be sent to you by e-mail.

Deadline for lunch bookings is Monday 4th September.